NOTICE TO PARTIES

A Seller must comply with the Seller Disclosure Law and disclose to a Buyer all known material defects about the Property being sold that are not readily observable. This document must be completed by the Seller and each page initialed by the Buyer and Seller following their review. This Disclosure Statement is designed to assist the Seller in complying with disclosure requirements and to assist the Buyer in evaluating the Property being considered. This form is to be completed by every non-exempt Seller, even if the Seller does not occupy or never occupied the property. The exceptions are described in paragraph 21 below.

This document discloses the Seller's knowledge of the condition of the Property as of the date signed by the Seller and is not a substitute for any inspections or warranties that the Buyer may wish to obtain. This document is not a warranty of any kind by the Seller or a warranty or representation by the West Penn Multi-List, Inc., any listing real estate broker, any selling real estate broker or their agents. The Buyer is encouraged to address concerns about any condition of the Property that may not be included in this statement with the Seller. This document also does not relieve the Seller of the obligation to disclose a material defect that may not be addressed on this form.

If an item of information is unknown or not available to Seller and Seller has made an effort to ascertain it, Seller may make a disclosure based on the best information available provided it is identified as a disclosure based on an incomplete factual basis.

A material defect is a problem with the Property or any portion of it that would have a significant adverse impact on the value of the residential real Property or that INVOLVES AN UNREASONABLE RISK TO PEOPLE ON THE LAND OR PROPERTY. When completing this form, check yes, no, unknown (unk), or not applicable (N/A) for each question. If a question does not apply to the property, N/A should be selected. Unknown (unk) should only be checked when the question does apply to the property but the Seller is uncertain of the answer.

condominium, homeowners association, or cooperative, the disclosure is to specifically refer to the Seller's Unit. Disclosures regarding common areas or facilities within such associations are not specifically required in this Disclosure Statement. However, compliance with the requirements that govern the resale of condominium, homeowner association, and cooperative interests is required as defined by the Uniform Condominium Act of Pennsylvania, the Uniform Planned Community Act of Pennsylvania, and/or the Real Estate Cooperative Act as such Acts may be amended. Exceptions to the Seller Disclosure Law requirements include:

- Transfers that are the result of a court order;
- Transfers to a mortgage lender that result from a Buyer's default and subsequent foreclosure sales that result from default;
- Transfers from a co-owner to one or more other co-owners;
- Transfers made to a spouse or direct descendant;
- Transfers between spouses that result from divorce, legal separation, or property settlement;
- Transfers by a corporation, partnership, or other association to its shareholders, partners, or other equity owners as part of a plan of liquidation;
- Transfers of a property to be demolished or converted to a non-residential use;
- Transfers of unimproved real property:
- Transfers by a fiduciary during the administration of a decedent estate, guardianship, conservatorship, or trust;
- Transfers of new construction that has never been occupied when:
  - (1) the buyer has received a one-year warranty covering the construction;
  - (2) the building has been inspected for compliance with the applicable building code or, if none, a nationally recognized model building code; and

(3) a certificate of occupancy or certificate of code compliance has been issued for the dwelling.

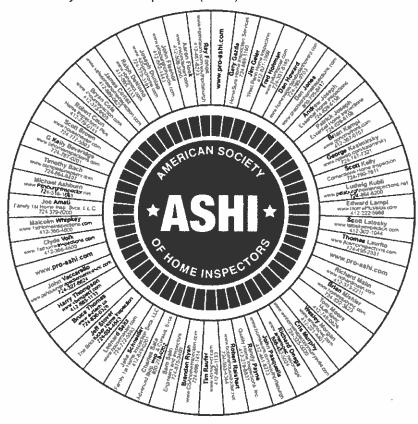

Except where these exceptions apply, the Seller is required to satisfy the requirements of the Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law as they may be amended and is required to make disclosures in accordance with the provisions of the Law. Although there are exceptions to the requirements of the Seller Disclosure Law, certain disclosures may still be required under Common Law.

Seller(s) shall attach additional sheets to this Disclosure Statement if additional space is required for their answer to any section herein and these sheets are considered part of this Disclosure Statement.
